Please look inside for important announcements and an important request from Gan Halev.

We are very happy and excited to announce that Rabbi Daniel Kohn will be leading our High Holiday Services this year. Rabbi Daniel and his family – his wife, and three children, live in Mill Valley. Rabbi Daniel has been a guest rabbi for Gan HaLev at various times in recent years, most recently for a discussion of his latest book, Emerging Jewish. Until now, he had not been available to take on additional spiritual leadership roles with us because of other commitments.

We know that there are many people who feel that they are part of our Gan HaLev community and who have not been as connected as perhaps they would like to be. During this coming year, our theme and our goals will be building community and finding ways of coming together with ruach and with programs, activities and opportunities for greater involvement.

You are all invited to come to a meeting with Rabbi Daniel at 10am on Sunday morning, August 17 at the Community Center in San Geronimo when we will be planning our High Holiday Services, and again on Saturday morning September 6 for a Shabbat service at Nancy Brown's home in Fairfax as we prepare spiritually for the new year.

We wish you a wonderful summer. All of us on the Board, welcome your calls, input and suggestions as we move forward on our journey.
