

Gan HaLev Membership 5775

Gan HaLev offers opportunities for adults and families to be connected to Jewish life and community in ways that feel right for them in today's world.

We offer regularly scheduled Shabbat services led by Rabbi Elisheva Salamo, as well as special programs and activities throughout the year. There are many ways to connect.

We are also pleased to offer a wonderful children and family education program and an exciting, innovative B'nai Mitzvah program for youth ages 11-14 years.

We are pleased that we have not raised our annual membership dues for the coming year keeping them at levels that we believe will be affordable for most members -- $400 for single adults and single-parents, and $600 for other families. SPECIAL NEW MEMBER DISCOUNT: We are pleased to offer a 50% discount off the regular membership dues for individuals and families who are joining Gan HaLev for the first time this year.

Everyone is welcome and no one will be turned away. If you are able to give more than the base membership dues, please consider an additional donation at this time so that we can continue to sustain our congregation and provide a vital, engaging Jewish community in West Marin for all.

Please pay by credit card or check payable to Gan HaLev or go to our website www.ganhalev.org to pay on-line. Membership dues includes High Holidays. Sunday School tuition will be billed separately.
